AN EVENING AT PENSURST PLACE

New for 1992! A sumptuous picnic, a tour of the house and gardens, and a champagne concert in the splendid setting of Penshurst Place will, for many, prove an irresistible temptation. Penshurst Place has been one of England's great country houses since 1339, and the home of the Sidney family since 1552. Guests are invited to bring a picnic in the late afternoon and to wander at leisure through magnificent gardens and rooms, before reaching their seats in the fourteenth century Barons' Hall. The Linden Orchestra will play a programme of baroque highlights, including 'The Arrival of the Queen of Sheba', Handel's 'Water Music' and the celebrated aria from Gluck's 'Orfeo'. Peter Goodwin, the orchestra's director and one of Europe's foremost baroque oboists, will also perform a spectacular oboe concerto by Albinoni. This special black tie event will include a glass of sparkling wine in the interval.

Performance in the Barons' Hall, Penshurst Place 8.00 pm £20.00

Dress: Black tie

THE KEMSING RAMBLE

Brian Doe's love for and knowledge of the downs at Kemsing are legendary. His Sunday afternoon rambles, during which his enthusiasm for the countryside is effortlessly and enthusiastically communicated, have become a special feature of the Festival.

Meet at 2.30 pm at the Car Park by Kemsing Church
